

Call for Papers for Advanced Experimental Mechanics Vol.5, 2020

Advanced Experimental Mechanics (AEM) is an official English journal published by the Japanese Society for Experimental Mechanics (JSEM), founded in 2001, that publishes papers annually (End of August) in all areas of experimentation including its theoretical and computational analysis. Articles extending the frontiers of Experimental Mechanics at large and small scales are particularly welcomed.

Prospective authors are invited to submit their papers in a specified format* along with a submission form and a copyright transfer form using the Editorial Manager System located at

<https://www.editorialmanager.com/j-aem>

*Kindly download a paper format, a submission form and related documents from the AEM Website: <http://www.jsem.jp/journal/aem/>

The submission fees are given as follows:

	JSEM member	JSEM non-member
ISEM participant	¥35,000	¥40,000
ISEM non-participant	¥45,000	¥50,000

Note1: the above fees apply to papers within 6 pages and do not include color page charges. An additional monochromatic page charge is ¥5,000 per page and a color page charge is also ¥5,000 per page.

Note 2: the fee include a pdf offprint and a copy of printed Journal AEM *cf: ¥100 = 0.94 US$ (as of August 14, 2019).

Key Dates for non-participants of ISEM (International Symposium on Advanced Science and Technology in Experimental Mechanics)

Full-length paper due: November 30, 2019

Publication date: End of August, 2020

Note:

The manuscripts submitted after the above deadline, if they are accepted, are going to be published in the 6th Volume of AEM in 2021.

Members of AEM Editorial Board
